Saturday, January 24th, Ray's Indoor Mountain Bike Park – www.raysmtb.com – hosts and challenges America's top XC pro cyclists and tests their form and fitness while competing in an exciting new coed two-person team format. Come compete for winnings from the $5,000 cash purse. Race over an exciting head-to-head indoor XC course designed by Pro XC racer Nat Ross. The event also includes Ride with the Pros on Sunday, Jan. 25th, where you can sign autographs, and ride & mingle with the fans.

Staff and photographers from top bike magazines and will be on hand to capture this inaugural event. Course features include a pump track, skinnies, logs, rocks, and rails. A course lap takes over ten minutes to complete. Racers chase the racer in front of them in a time-trial format. Time penalties deducted for dabs, and time bonuses awarded for jumping or clearing obstacles or improvising riding solutions. Riding skills are required for this event, not just big lungs and strong legs.
